

YELLOW SPRINGS ART COUNCIL: DKG EXHIBIT

By Lori Riemer

Earlier this year, with permission from the DKG, I submitted an application to exhibit our knitted art publicly at The Yellow Spring Arts Council (<https://www.ysartscouncil.org>) . Our application was accepted! Yippee and what a great opportunity to showcase our art. I am very excited for this happy and social event. I know by working together we will get to know each other better and build our community.

I sincerely invite each of you to submit items for consideration by the committee. Think outside the box with household items, stuffies, hats, cowls, big vibrant shawls, sweaters and any other finished objects that you would like to be considered.

TWO IMPORTANT DATES

April 1, 2023 – Deadline for Submission

Items may be given to Lori Riemer, Laura Hinders, Elizabeth McDonough, OR dropped off at Lynn McCown's house. There is a second page with simple instructions.

AND secondly Save the Date!

June 30, 2023 at the Yellow Springs Arts Council. An Opening Night Reception. YAY US - IT'S A PARTY

In the coming months there will be much more information and updates coming your way. If you are ready for additional information, read on.

We would love to have you participate in a meaningful way. How would you like to be involved?

YELLOW SPRINGS ART COUNCIL: DKG EXHIBIT

How to submit an item for show consideration

You may give your items to Laura Hinders, Elizabeth McDonough, Lori Riemer or drop the item off at Lynn McCown's house.

Deadline April 1, 2023

Include an index card with each item

On the card include name, phone number and fiber content and brief identifying description

We will take great care in storing, handling, transporting and displaying each item. While we are all knitters who truly respect each item, there is no guarantee that an unanticipated catastrophic event could occur. Do not submit any item that sustains your life. If you can not accept the inherent risk of having your item displayed, then please get involved with this event in another way. ✦
